4. Brief history of Department giving information of its headship from inception to date

Initially, sub-professional courses leading to the first and intermediary examinations of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, U.K. were established at the then Enugu Branch of the College of Arts, Science and Technology late in 1957.

Following the 1960 Ashby Commission's recommendation, the College including the Department of Estate Management was absorbed by the University of Nigeria in 1961 as its Enugu Campus.

In 1962, J.A. Umeh was recruited by the Inter-university Council of U.K. for the University of Nigeria. He subsequently joined the academic staff of the Department and prepared a holistic B.Sc. degree programme in Estate Management as a pioneer degree awarding department of Estate Management in Nigeria. In September 1963, 23 foundation students were admitted to the degree programme and the department graduated her first products in June 1967.

Except for the short interregnum during the Nigerian Civil War, the Department has continued admission and graduations of students since then. In 1980, the Department became the first in Nigeria to mount an M.Sc., postgraduate programme in Estate

Management. Subsequently, in 1983 the Ph.D programme was established with J.U. Ogbuefi as the pioneer product of both the M.Sc. and Ph.D. programmes. Since then, the Department has graduated top professionals and scholars lecturing in many other Departments of Estate Management in various Universities in Nigeria and in other countries.

The Department has remained a reference point for the training of high quality manpower in the field of Estate Management in Nigeria and has at various times established linkage programmes with such Universities as University of Cambridge in England and University of Strathslyde in Scotland.

Products of the Department who have helped in nurturing other sister Departments in various Universities in Nigeria include: Prof. J.I. Ighalo, Obafemi Awolowo University Ile-Ife, Dr. (Mrs.) M.N. Omirin, University of Lagos, Akoka, Prof. C.C. Egolum, Nnamdi Azikiwe University, Awka, Prof. I.U. Kalu, Abia State University, Uturu.
